

9. LOGOUT view- Veronika Pook

@Veronika Pook (tester: Mark)

COMPANY COLLABORATION APP  Login - My directory (v1.0.3) Project 2 Sprint 1 Version 1.0.3

|           | User                 | Admin                |
|-----------|----------------------|----------------------|
| Email:    | team6_user@email.com | team6_admin@ebay.com |
| Password: | user                 | admin                |

|                 |  |
|-----------------|--|
| Test case ID    | 9.1 Functionality and redirection to login page  |
| Description     | Check logout functionality and redirection to login page.Roles: Administrator and User |
| Precondition    | The user is logged in  |
| Test data       | -  |
| Test steps      | 1. Click logout button   |
| Expected result | 1. The user is logged out and login page is shown  |
| Actual result   | PASSED   |

|                 |   |
|-----------------|---|
| Test case ID    | 9.2 Logout behavior using two browsers at the same time   |
| Description     | Test if logging out from one web browser ( Browser A ) affects the login status in other browser ( Browser B ) where the same account is logged in.Roles: Administrator and User  |
| Precondition    | The user is logged in from two different browsers ( Browser A and Browser B ) with the same credentials   |
| Test data       | Logout behavior using two browsers with the same credentials at the same time   |
| Test steps      | 1. Logout from Browser A .2. Check Browser B 's login status by clicking Home button in the application   |
| Expected result | 1. The user is logged out from the app in Browser A and login page is shown2. Home button is clicked in Browser B and the user is directed to login page  |
| Actual result   | FAILED  T11CCP-260: 9.2 Logout behavior using two browsers at the same ti TO DO |

|              |  |
|--------------|--|
| Test case ID | 9.3 Logout behavior using two tabs at the same time  |
| Description  | Test if logging out from one tab (tab A) affects the login status on other tab (tab B) where the same account is logged in.Roles: Administrator and User |

|                 |   |
|-----------------|---|
| Precondition    | The user is logged in from two different tabs ( tab A and tab B ) with the same credentials   |
| Test data       | Logout behavior using two different tabs with the same credentials at the same time   |
| Test steps      | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Logout from tab A.</li> <li>2. Check tab B's login status by clicking any button in the application</li> </ol>  |
| Expected result | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The user is logged out from the app in tab A and login page is shown</li> <li>2. Home button is clicked in tab B and the user is directed to login page</li> </ol>                  |
| Actual result   |  FAILED   T11CCP-261: 9.3 Logout behavior using two tabs at the same time   TO DO   |

|                 |  |
|-----------------|--|
| Test case ID    | 9.4 Logout authentication  |
| Description     | Verify that after logging out and clicking browser's Back button, you cannot perform any actions on the computer's History stored previously displayed screen. Roles: Administrator and User   |
| Precondition    | The user is logged in and navigated to Home page in the app  |
| Test data       | Webpage's cache  |
| Test steps      | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Click logout button</li> <li>2. Click browser's Back button</li> <li>3. Click on any button on the Home page</li> </ol>   |
| Expected result | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The user is logged out from the app and login page is shown</li> <li>2. User is back at Home page</li> <li>3. If by pressing the Back button the tester can access previous pages but not access new ones, then it is not an authentication issue (but a browser history issue).</li> </ol> |
| Actual result   |  FAILED   T11CCP-262: 9.4 Logout authentication   TO DO    |