

UC1. Self-registration

General description

The new employee must be able to register his/her profile in the Directory system independently.

The registration flow can be started from the login page and the employee must complete the registration for to create a profile.

Business logic

1. The user must be able to initiate registration flow from the Login page by clicking link "Register here".
2. To register a profile following mandatory data must be present:
 - a. Employee First name
 - b. Employee Last name
 - c. Employee email
 - d. Employee password
 - i. Password must be at least 8 characters.
 - ii. Password must contain at least 1 uppercase character.
 - iii. Password must contain at least 1 lowercase character.
 - iv. Password must contain at least 1 number.
 - v. Password must contain at least 1 symbol.
3. The user must be able to enter following additional information (optional fields):
 - a. Title in the company
 - b. Department
 - c. Office
 - d. State and Region
 - e. Country
 - f. Telephone number
4. The user must be able to upload profile picture (in jpg or png format).
 - a. Max possible size of the picture must be 1200x1200px.
5. The user must be able to choose notification preferences and select does he want to receive app notifications and emails.
6. After the registration form is submitted the user must be saved to the "Registration submissions".
7. The administrator will activate the user manually and after that the user must be able to access the system.
8. All the data that user entered must be saved and later editable under the user profile.